

COACHES

Curt Tempel

Curt is the godfather of Missoula Freestyle. He has been coaching with MFT since its inception. With over 20 years of coaching experience, Curt will be able to guide you toward your shredding dreams. Curt is a Jr. Comp team coach, co-director of MFT, and all around mountain shredder. Curt is a former pro-mogul champion with a very impressive spread eagle.

Donovan Power

Donovan Power grew up in the Missoula Freestyle program. He is a former national champion and US Ski Team member. He began skiing on the MFT when he was 11 and began coaching for the team when he was 22. Now the co-director of MFT with Curt he will be involved in all levels of MFT. He enjoys "shredding the gnar" and laughing about how silly that sounds.

Landon Gardner, Head Coach

Landon is veteran U.S. ski team member with years of World Cup mogul skiing experience. He is a Missoula native that grew up skiing on the Missoula Freestyle team and a long time contributor as a coach. Since Landon retired from the U.S. Team last year he can now be found with a shovel or his powder boards in hand. He is the newest and most exciting off-season addition to our coaching line-up. Landon simply shreds harder than everyone at Snowbowl, period.

Joe Dillon

Joe Dillon is our head Freeride coach. He grew up on MFT and was one of the first skiers that we had in our Freeride program. Joe maintains the freeride park at Snowbowl and is the welder and designer of all of our rails. Joe is an excellent all around skier with a very approachable attitude. Joe will make sure you can shred the whole mountain and keep it stylish in the park.

Nathan "Tater" Moon

Tater was one of the first skiers on the MFT team and has been coaching on the team for over 20 years. He heads up the devo-program and is a MFT legend. Tater will show you how to ski the whole mountain and keep you laughing continuously all the way up the griz lift (the man likes jokes). Tater is a former Northern Division competitor and a Snowbowl fixture.

About us

The Missoula Freestyle Ski Team has been shredding at Snowbowl since the late 80's. Last season, two MFT members were named to the U.S. Ski Team. We emphasize all mountain skiers with the technical skills to ski any mountain in any condition. We have a knowledgeable coaching staff with years of competition and coaching experience. We love teaching athletes to take their love for skiing to the next level. Come and ski on our competition mogul course and our terrain park. We will teach you to shred.

Competition Team

The competition team is geared toward athletes that would like to take their skiing to the next level. We train Saturdays and Sundays and travel to competitions around the state and beyond. The comp team is designed for athletes that want to learn how to ski and compete in a competitive environment. We have trained past and current US Ski Team members and provide a training facility that is literally second to none. Come up and see us any time on Sunrise Bowl.
